A WORD FROM CHANCELLOR

I am pleased to welcome you to the AIHC School of Biblical Studies. You are now part of a talented group of individuals who share a passion for bible learning.

Here, at AIHC Bible School, we understand the importance of being prepared for ministry. Our motto, "Preparing to Serve", recognizes that our first duty in building God's kingdom is to prepare oneself to serve Him and our neighbors.

I commend you on your decision to make ministry an integral part of your life. I'm also proud that you have chosen this school to help you prepare for this endeavor. The faculty, governing board, and I extend to you our support and best wishes.

Again, welcome to AIHC School of Biblical Studies. I hope your year ahead is both challenging and successful.

Sincerely,

Freddie L. Thomas

Freddie L. Thomas, BS, CLS
Chancellor

A WORD FROM THE PRESIDENT

Dear Students,

It is with great pleasure that I take this time to congratulate you on your decision to make AIHC School of Biblical Studies the place to help further your ministerial endeavors. I, along with the other faculty members are committed to you and your educational pursuits.

As the President, one of my duties is to ensure that you receive the biblical knowledge that will help you achieve your goals.

The mission statement of this school embraces the core values of this Association: to prepare you for practical ministry, to nurture your commitment to a life of service, and to promote the spirit of excellence.

Sincerely,

Dr. Granville Scruggs

Dr. Granville Scruggs,
President

History

AIHC School of Biblical Studies was established in 2011 by a group of pastors led by Mr. Freddie L. Thomas, Sr. It serves as a major entity of the Association of Independent Holiness Churches, which was also started by Mr. Freddie L. Thomas, Sr. in 2009. Its purpose is to provide students with a holistic study in the bible and to help ensure that they are prepared to serve in their communities and/or at their local churches. The founder, along with the governing board, insist that the school promote a spirit of excellence in training and preparing leaders for church and society.

Currently, the school offers a Certificate of Completion in Biblical Studies and a Certificate of Ordination.

Facilities and Equipment

AIHC School of Biblical Studies uses the facility of Christ Communion Temple which is 4,900 square feet. Classes are held in the fellowship hall of Christ Communion Temple connected to the church's main building. The fellowship hall is 800 square feet and seats 50 people. The equipment used for classroom instruction and administrative purposes are the copier and computer.

School's Mission

The mission is to prepare students for a life of service in the ministry of our Lord with emphasis on biblical teachings and practical ministry.

School's Motto

Preparing to Serve

“And He said unto them, Go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel to every creature.”
(St. Mark 16:15)

STATEMENT OF THEOLOGY

- We believe that there exists one God who is expressed in the person of God the father, God the son, and God the Holy Spirit. That these three entities are one in purpose and existence.
- We believe that God is Omnipotent, Omniscient, and Omnipresent.
- We believe that God is the Creator and Sustainer of all that exist.
- We believe that there is no other God.
- We believe that God is love.

Institutional Purpose

AIHC School of Biblical Studies is a major entity of the Association of Independent Holiness Churches. It is designed to equip its congregants for a life of service through holistic bible study and practical training.

We believe that the bible provides the basis for Christian education and that the principles taught should be at the heart of Christian service.

We believe individuals, who have made a commitment to the ministry of our Lord, should have an opportunity to prepare themselves to serve the needs of God's people. We are striving to help our students fulfill the Great Commission of our Lord Jesus Christ through practical ministry.

Institutional Objectives

AIHC School of Biblical Studies desires to educate our students in helping them achieve specific objectives. Graduates will be trained to:

1. Assist their pastors in building an effective ministry for the people of God.
2. Apply biblical principles and general knowledge received from the study of the bible and field experience sessions.
3. Assume leadership roles within the local churches such as teachers and worship leaders
4. Gain an awareness and appreciation in serving the needs of all individuals

Institutional Values

Founded in historical “South Memphis”, our identity has been shaped by a strong sense of purpose, a superb determination, and humble surroundings.

Men and women who are connected to the inner city now prepare themselves to meet the challenge of social demoralization through biblical education and faith.

These noble characteristics of the human spirit of necessity have forged in us the following values:

AIHC School of Biblical Studies will not compromise the principles of Christianity as it incorporates proven methodologies of learning.

AIHC School of Biblical Studies seeks to promote tolerance and understanding of any whose beliefs may differ from the fundamental of Christianity.

AIHC School of Biblical Studies is committed to providing the highest quality of education and training comparable with our student population.

AIHC School of Biblical Studies is committed to provide opportunities for learning in a hospitable environment that will enhance the ministry of Pastors.

AIHC School of Biblical Studies affirms that all people are created in the image and likeness of God that they should prepare themselves for His service and His reward.

AIHC School of Biblical Studies affirms the presence of the Holy Spirit as the principal agent of our Lord upon the earth, and that He guides us into all truths concerning Jesus.

AIHC School of Biblical Studies seeks to mold men and women, who have a zeal toward God, into credible, informed, bible based Christian Leaders.

Financial Information

Tuition and Fees

AIHC School of Biblical Studies offers an affordable tuition. Students are responsible for paying the full tuition during the first trimester. Students can opt to pay in installments. They must read, sign, and submit the Installment Payment Plan/Promissory Note form to the administration office and the Enrollment Agreement form.

Students who do not meet payment obligation will be notified by the administration office. No certificate will be granted or issued until all financial obligations have been paid.

GUARANTEED TUITION AND FEE RATE

Upon enrollment at AIHC School of Biblical Studies each student signs an Enrollment Agreement form. This agreement outlines the total expected costs of the degree program in which the student is enrolling. The Enrollment Agreement guarantees a student that the tuition and fee rates stipulated will not increase if the student remains continuously enrolled as a student and meets or exceeds the graduation requirements.

CANCELLATION REFUND POLICY

Rejection: Applicant rejected by the school is entitled to a refund of all monies paid.

Three-Day Cancellation: An applicant who provides written notice of cancellation within three business days, excluding weekends and holidays, of executing the enrollment agreement, but prior to the first day of class is entitled to all refund of all monies paid, excluding the $50.00 non-refundable application fee.

Withdrawal Procedure:

- A. A student choosing to withdraw from the school after the commencement of classes is to provide a written notice to the Director of the school. The notice must include the expected last date of attendance, signature, and date.
- B. A student will be determined to be withdrawn from the institution if the student misses three unexcused consecutive instructional days.
- C. All refund must be submitted within 30 days of the determination of the withdrawal date.

Tuition refunds will be determined as follows:

Withdraw during the 1 st week of classes	Full Refund
Withdraw after 2 nd class session Regardless of attendance	50% of program cost
Withdraw after 3 rd class session Regardless of attendance	No Refund

Student Life

The learning experience students gain at AIHC School of Biblical Studies is one that helps ensure that they are equipped and prepared for a life of service. The school recognizes that gaining bible knowledge is necessary for students to develop and grow spiritually in Christ. Thus, students must commit to a thorough study of God's word by attending classes, completing reading assignments, and making satisfactory performance.

Spiritual Life

A student who develops a relationship with Jesus Christ is the most important aspect in fulfilling God's purpose. It is the foundation that lead students to a "whole and complete" life in Him. AIHC School of Biblical Studies wants to encourage students' personal walk with Christ. Also, it wants to foster an environment where students can mature and grow by studying the scriptures and applying them to their daily lives.

Christian Experience and Service

Practical application of biblical principles is not only expressed in students' daily living but also by serving as effective leaders and workers in ministry. The field experience sessions and practicum have provided students with the opportunity to receive exposure and knowledge in how to carry out the gospel in various areas of ministry.

Code of Conduct

AIHC School of Biblical Studies strives to maintain a positive learning environment where everyone is responsible and held accountable for their own actions. Along with complying to the overall mission of the school, students must also follow the Academic Integrity and Student Behavior guidelines.

1. Academic Integrity

AIHC School of biblical Studies is a bible learning community that fosters the pursuit and spirit of excellence. It is important that the school preserves the quality of education offered to its students. All members of this community have a responsibility to create an atmosphere that will support the academic integrity. Violation of academic integrity such as cheating, plagiarism, and falsification will result in immediate action from the school officials.

2. Student Behavior

All students are always required to behave and act responsibly. The students of AIHC School of Biblical Studies commit themselves to acting accordingly with the Association's beliefs and principles. They must follow the values that include academic honesty, personal integrity and respect for their fellow peers, faculty, and staff.

Dismissal

If any student is in compliance with the rules and regulations of AIHC School of Biblical Studies that exhibit behaviors that disrupts and interrupts the institution's learning environment, the student will be disciplined accordingly which may lead to expulsion.

Please refer to the Code of Student Rights and Responsibilities for policy and procedures concerning student conduct.

Academic Information

Every effort is made to ensure that the information provided in this catalog is accurate. Information concerning course descriptions, program offerings, faculty, and degree requirements are subject to change without notice.

Information Sessions

These sessions provide information about our program, curriculum, and admission requirements. All prospective students who have expressed an interest in enrolling our school are welcome to attend. Please register online to attend a session.

Orientation

Orientation is an event for all new and returning students. This event is MANDATORY for all new students. Also, any potential students who have expressed an interest in enrolling our school are welcome to attend. The purpose of the orientation is to provide students with information and support necessary to begin a bible learning experience at AIHC School of Biblical Studies.

Registration

Students are responsible for registering on time and having all required documents submitted to the administration office by the date specified on the academic calendar. (The actual date for submission varies each year). Students may not continue the program if all required documents are not submitted by the deadline.

Faculty

AIHC School of Biblical Studies is focused on providing students with a good quality Christian education. The faculty is well-qualified spiritually and academically to teach students and promote the mission of the school.

Attendance Policy

Students are expected to attend all lectures, field experience sessions, and complete practicum hours. It is understood that unexpected circumstances can occur that may result in an absence. It is the student's responsibility to get all required materials and assignments from any missed class. Also, any student who miss three excused consecutive classes must report to the school officials detailing orally and in writing reasons for non-attendance. For further information regarding the attendance policy, please refer to the student handbook.

Withdrawal

Students who wish to discontinue the program must submit a letter to the administration office detailing their reasons for withdrawing from the school.
