

Trustee Board is scheduled to meet three times or more times a year to stay informed and current on the legal, business, and educational affairs of AIHC School of Biblical Studies. Last December 2023, in lieu of a Zoom meeting, it was approved by the board's chairman to have a read-on meeting. All board members were advised and accepted this format. Board members are listed below. The read-on notes detailed a continuation of the school's goals and the progression of those goals.

Items included: completion of non-profit status, improvement of the school's social media presence, and continued establishment of the degree program (associate degree in Christian Ministries)
